Thursday, October 21. 1768.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 23.

Vienna, Oct. 10.

OUR Court are employ'd in finding out and settling necessary Funds for maintaining the War against the Pope, in case he will not hearken to Propositions of Accommodation. The Chiefs of the Malecontents being supported by Money from France, continue to reject all Offers made to them on the Part of the Emperour. We have Advice from Barcelona, that the Field-Marshal C. Staremberg had detach'd two Battallions to be transported from Tarragona to Denia, for reinforcing that Garrison.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Oct. 16.

Hambourg, Oct. 8. The Baron de Lelienstett, Minister of the King of Sweden, return'd hither Yesterday from Staden, and to Day assisted at the first Session of the Imperial Commission; which was held in the Hall of Berne, by which Expedient the Disputes that were rais'd for Rank, while 'twas propos'd that the Commission should sit in the Appartments of Count Schonborn the Emperour's Plenipotentiary, are remov'd. During the Session a Company of Grenadiers of the City-Troops, were posted in the Street before the said Hall. The College of Sixty, gave in their Grievances; and it being resolv'd there shall be 3 Sessions Weekly, 'tis hop'd the Commission will not last long, and that the City will be eas'd of the Troops of the Circle of Lower Saxony. A Burgher, who had been taken into Custody for having talk'd too freely at the Time of the Entrance of the said Troops, was try'd to Day, and discharg'd, but Sentenc'd to pay the Costs of the Prosecution. Dr. Robinson, the British Minister is confin'd to his Bed by Indisposition.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Oct. 19.

Hambourg, Octob. 12. The Commission has not sat since Monday last: The first thing they will do, will be to examine the Grievances of the Burghers, which were deliver'd to them by the College of Sixty.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 23.

From the Swedes Head-Quarter, on the Frontier of Muscovy, Sept. 22. The 20th our Baggage was attack'd by 8000 Muscovite Horse commanded by General Baur; and 4000 of them broke through two of our Regiments, but were driven into a Morass, where many of them were kill'd or taken Prisoners. Yesterday our King engag'd a Party of Muscovites, among whom was Prince Menzikow with his Guards, and drove them before him a League and an Half into their own Country: In this Action his Majesty had a Horse kill'd under him.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 23.

Letters from Warsaw of the 8th of October advise, that the King of Sweden was on the March towards the Ukraine, there to take up his Winter-

Quarters; but that the Cossacks and Calmucks endeavour'd to prevent it, by laying waste all the Country through which the Swedes must pass, to deprive them of Subsistence: That King Stanislaus is at Marienbourg in Prussia; that 'twas reported the Negotiation of Accommodation between him and the great Marshal of the Crown was broken off; and that 'twas believ'd he would not venture to take the Field against that General.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Oct. 19.

Berlin, Oct. 9. Letters from Coningsberg tell us the King of Sweden pursues his March towards the Ukraine, there to Winter with his Army. But that there was no Account of the Cossacks being dispos'd to receive him into their Country: That the Muscovites flatter'd themselves General Mazepa would influence the Cossacks to continue firm to the Czar's Interest. And that the Troops of that General, which are in the Czar's Army, harras the Swedes very much in their Marches. Letters from some Muscovite Officers advise, that though the Czar's Army is double the Number of the King of Sweden's, he will avoid coming to a general Action.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 23.

Amsterdam, Octob. 23. Letters from Muscovy of the 15th of last Month give an Account, that the March of the King of Sweden into that Country, caus'd a great Consternation among the People; but that the Czar's Ministers encourag'd them as much as possible, by representing to them that his Czarish Majesty has very numerous Forces; that he narrowly observes the Motions of the Enemy; and that the further the Swedes advance into his Country, the more they expose themselves to be absolutely ruin'd should they fall into any Misfortune.

Letters have been communicated to us, writt'n from Warsaw, and from Coningsberg, which speak advantageously of the Condition of the Czar of Muscovy's Affairs: Relating particularly, that at the Passage of the Borysthenes, the Swedes were oppos'd by General Goltz with a Body of Muscovites, and lost above 7000 Men kill'd and 800 Drown'd: That 400 Waggons, sent from Wilda with Provisions for the Swedish Army, were intercepted and taken by 4000 Cossacks, who cut in Pieces 500 Swedish Dragoons that guarded them: That a Body of Calmuck Tartars had cut off 600 Swedes near Plotsko, and taken 3 Waggons loaded with Swords and Musquets: That the Swedish Army is reduc'd to such Straits by the Muscovites, that some Thousands of Men and Horses have perish'd for Hunger; and that in the mean Time the Muscovites have Plenty of Provisions. Lastly, that General Lewenhaupt with his Body of 12000 Swedes, is so harass'd by a Body of Muscovites and another of Cossacks, that he can neither join the King of Sweden, nor long subsist the said Troops under his Command.
